IRC 5. TOURNAMENTS RULES

Caps

IRC 5.1 Players must keep the same cap numbers for the duration of the tournament. The first goalkeeper should wear number 1 red cap and the second goalkeeper red number 13 cap. In the event that an outfield player has to play in goal, he shall wear the red goalkeeper's cap and the coach must inform the referees / table of the player's original number

Match Sheets

IRC 5.2 Each team must list their squad of up to 15 players before the start of their first match. In the event that a team has 14 or 15 players, they must inform the table ½ an hour before each match which 1 or 2 players are not playing.

Pool Fees

IRC 5.3 As per Information Letter above. Any team which fails to do so will not be allowed to play, will forfeit their games, and will be liable for walkover fines for their matches, in addition to still being liable for the pool fees

Brutality

IRC 5.4 Any player excluded for the remainder of the game without substitute for 4 minutes, for brutality shall be suspended for at least the next game. The Tournament Director and/or Jury of Appeal may impose a greater penalty due to the nature of the brutality. Any such punishment shall be in addition to any punishment that the IWPA Disciplinary Committee may impose at a later hearing.

Yellow and Red Cards

IRC 5.5 Any head coach who addresses comments to, at or about the referees will receive a yellow card. This is a warning and is only applicable in the match in question – it is not carried forward to his next match. Further transgressions will result in a red card being issued. Any other coach, official or player who addresses comments to, at or about the referees will receive a red card. Any coach, player or other official, who receives a red card must immediately leave the poolside and go to the spectator area, without speaking to or communicating with his team. After receiving a red card, the coach may not attempt to coach, instruct or communicate with his team from the spectator area. If he attempts to do so, he will be ejected from the precincts of the pool and further sanctioned.

IRC 5.6 A coach, player or other official who receives a red card will be suspended for at least the next game. The Tournament Director and/or Jury of Appeal may impose a greater penalty due to the nature of the offence. Any such punishment shall be in addition to any punishment that the IWPA Disciplinary Committee may impose at any later hearing.

IRC 5.7 In the event of a red card for the head coach, the second or assistant coach may stand and coach the team, but may not move to 5 metres - he must remain at the bench.

IRC 5.8 If a coach receives a red card and consequent suspension, he may not coach or play in a game involving a team of another gender in the Cup competition until that suspension has been served.

Team Benches

IRC 5.9 All players not in the water at a given time must remain seated at the team bench at all times. Any assistant coaches or team managers must also remain seated at all times. An assistant coach or team manager who breaches this Rule shall receive a red card. A player, who is excluded from the remainder of the game by way of 3 personal fouls, must remain on the team bench, with their cap on. A player excluded from the remainder of the game by the referee (for Misconduct, Brutality etc.) shall immediately leave the team bench.

Results

IRC 5.10 Points shall be awarded as follows:

- i. Win - 3 Points
- ii. Draw - 1 Point
- iii. Loss - 0 Points

IRC 5.11 All knockout matches will be played to a definite result. In the event of a tie at the end of normal time, the game shall go into a "penalty shoot-out" in accordance with FINA Rules.

Timeouts

Each team is entitled to take ONE Time out per match.

Padraig Smyth,
Tournament Director.
